Bina has never forgotten the time she and her mother ran away from home. Her mother promised they would hitchhike to the city to escape Bina's cruel father and start over. But before they could even leave town, Bina had a new stepfather and two new stepsisters, and a humming sense of betrayal pulling apart the bond with her mother—a bond Bina thought was unbreakable.

Eight years later, after too many lies and with trouble on her heels, Bina finds herself on the side of the road again, the city of her dreams calling for her. She has an old suitcase, a fresh black eye, and a room waiting for her at Catherine House, a young women's residence in Greenwich Village with a tragic history, a vow of confidentiality, and dark, magical secrets. There, Bina is drawn to her enigmatic downstairs neighbor Monet, a girl who is equal parts intriguing and dangerous. As Bina's lease begins to run out, and nightmare and memory get tangled, she will be forced to face the terrible truth of why she came to Catherine House and what it will take for her to leave...

'A Room Away From The Wolves' Makes The Gothic Bitingly ... In A Room Away from the Wolves, angry, complicated girls get entangled in a Gothic mystery with all the classic elements—an old house, a cursed ring, a legacy handed from mother to daughter. A Room Away From the Wolves by Nova Ren Suma A Room Away From the Wolves is an atmospheric, unique story set in an old boarding house in New York City. It follows a bisexual Jewish girl who is trying to leave behind an abusive home situation. This is an odd, quiet, slow-paced gem of a book, unlike everything I had ever read before, and surprisingly difficult to review. A Room Away From the Wolves - Workman Publishing — A Room Away from the Wolves is a beautifully tangled chain, a modern gothic haunting by one of our masters. — Elana K. Arnold, author of What Girls Are Made Of — This urban fable is a marvel of mood and magic.
